1. Calaveras Big Trees State Park
   This park has a little bit of everything—massive sequoia trees, Gold Country history, kid-friendly trails and campsites, children’s programs, and even guided weekend hikes for the whole family!

2. California Citrus State Historic Park
   Enjoy the free guided Tours and Taste program that will take you through historic citrus groves where you can sample sweet California citrus right off the tree.

3. Caswell Memorial State Park
   Make the most of a day out for the kids when you swim or fish in the Stanislaus River, and enjoy the campfire and Junior Ranger programs! Or take one of the nature walks on seemingly endless trails that are given every weekend throughout summer.

4. Sugarloaf Ridge State Park
   Soak up some astronomy education in the Robert Ferguson Observatory, open year round with telescopes for public viewing.

5. Marshall Gold Discovery State Historic Park
   Step back in time with a Gold Discovery Tour, offered year round, or visit a special event like Second Saturday Living History Days or Coloma Gold Rush Live.
Point Lobos State Natural Reserve
Explore the beauty of this park on various trails that are fully ADA compliant. On some, you can get a closer look at wildlife with the help of guides equipped with scopes and binoculars.

Año Nuevo State Park
Get magnificent views of the coast, and don’t miss the Equal Access Guided Walk Program during elephant seal breeding season from December to March. Transportation is arranged for visitors to access a boardwalk and see the seals.

Doheny State Beach
Enjoy an amazing sunset and watch surfers catch waves from one of the accessible picnic areas at this beach. Or stop by the visitor center and check out the largest public aquarium in the CA state park system!

Humboldt Redwoods State Park
Visit California’s largest redwood state park and gaze up at trees that are thousands of years old. The park has accessible trails and multiple campgrounds with accessible sites.

Folsom Lake State Recreation Area
This 18,000-acre lake has accessible opportunities for camping, picnicking, boating and more. Rent a free beach wheelchair to take full advantage of the beautiful shore.
Anza-Borrego Desert State Park
When you visit the largest state park in California with 12 wilderness areas, be sure to take in this expansive desert view from Font’s Point.

Antelope Valley California Poppy Reserve
This park is great for picnics and spotting wildlife year round, but it offers especially amazing views when wildflowers bloom throughout Spring into early Fall.

Julia Pfeiffer Burns State Park
The Waterfall Overlook Trail will take you to the remains of a historic residence, or you can wander across the street to hike through towering redwoods.

Mount Tamalpais State Park
Hike through redwoods and oak groves, past waterfalls and sweeping hillsides, to the summit to see views of the Farallon Islands, Marin County and San Francisco.

Emerald Bay State Park
On Lake Tahoe’s west shore, Emerald Bay offers a breathtaking view of brilliant blue-green due to its shallower depth. Fannett Island, the only islet in Lake Tahoe, is the crown jewel of this spectacular view.
Torrey Pines State Beach
Swim, surf and fish on this wide stretch of sandy beach, or take a scenic hike through the striking red-hued bluffs surrounding the beach.

Crystal Cove State Park
Crystal Cove offers 3.2 miles of beach and 2,400 acres of wilderness. Not only that, just offshore is an 1,100-acre underwater park! You’ll find diverse habitat and incredible places to scuba dive and snorkel.

Morro Bay State Park
This park is home to a beautiful bay habitat featuring a saltwater marsh and a colorful marina. Visit the park’s museum to learn about local Native American history and snap a pic with the park’s most notable landmark: Morro Rock.

Half Moon Bay State Beach
Here you’ll find four sandy, picturesque miles of beach ideal for sunbathing, picnicking and fishing, plus a campground for those who wish to extend their visit!

Mono Lake Tufa State Natural Reserve
The unique landscape around this salty, million-year-old lake is an untraditional “beachfront” location. Freshwater springs and alkaline lake water have interacted to form these unusual “tufa towers” of calcium carbonate!
D.L. Bliss State Park
Camp near the crystal-clear deep blue waters of Lake Tahoe. Visitors come to swim and sunbathe at Lester Beach, marvel at Balancing Rock, or admire the famously blue lake waters.

Leo Carrillo State Park
Enjoy camping under the sycamores or on a gorgeous beach with access to tide pools and incredible coastal views. Relax, fish, birdwatch and explore nature at its finest!

Pfeiffer Big Sur State Park
Camp in the Santa Lucia Mountains in this “little Yosemite” with its towering redwoods and animals from black-tail deer to water ouzels.

Angel Island State Park
For a truly unique camping experience, camp on this island north of Alcatraz and escape downtown San Francisco without ever leaving the bay.

Big Basin Redwoods State Park
From your campsite, hike the trails beneath huge old-growth trees in the Santa Cruz Mountains and you’ll find your pick of four waterfalls to enjoy.
Old Town San Diego
State Historic Park
Experience the history of San Diego through museums, a working blacksmith shop, music, burros, and special activities representing early San Diego.

Hearst San Simeon
State Historical Monument
High above the ocean at San Simeon you’ll find the famous 115-room Hearst Castle, as well as an impressive collection of European antiques, art and cultivated gardens.

Columbia State Historic Park
Step back in time to the Gold Rush era of the 1850s and watch proprietors in period clothing conduct business, or ride a 100-year-old stagecoach and pan for gold yourself!

Railtown 1897 State Historic Park
Perfect for the railroad enthusiast, Railtown boasts excursion train rides and a railroad specialty gift shop. This one-of-a-kind attraction combines railroad history with Hollywood’s intriguing past.

Colonel Allensworth State Historic Park
Visit the town funded, financed and governed by visionary African Americans in 1908. See the early-twentieth-century buildings while learning about this unique town and inspiring story!
